

I oppose loosening the rules designed to promote and protect diversity of media ownership. These rules were adopted to ensure that the public would receive a diverse range of viewpoints from the media, and not simply the opinions of a handful of media conglomerates.

Media diversity is essential, in order to keep the general public aware of important social and political issues. In Milan for example there are about 12 to 15 daily newspapers printed which cover a wide range of issues.